

ORAL INTERPRETATION ORIGINALITY/SOURCE CERTIFICATION

Contestant Certification

I certify that the oral interpretation material that I will present during the contest today is not my original work (excluding introductory material and transitions). I certify that the selection conforms to all of the current rules for the appropriate event and that I have a manuscript, with appropriate source references, available for the judges. I also certify that I have not used the material in this particular cutting in a prior academic year middle school or high school contest (excluding the MSCI spring tournament from the prior year).

Coach Certification

The oral interpretation material that any or all of our contestants will present during the contest today is not an original work (excluding introductory material and transitions). I also certify that none of the interpretation material has been used by any of the participants in a middle school or high school contest in a prior academic year (excluding the MSCI spring tournament from the prior year). I understand the MIFA rules regarding the particular event in which any of our contestants are participating and certify that our contestants are in compliance with all of the guidelines for the event. Our contestants have a manuscript of each selection, with appropriate source references, available for the judges.
